Dear Applicant,

If you have, after your application, been invited to an corresponding job interview, the following information may be helpful for a corresponding preparation.

Interview Tips:

- If you are invited to a job interview you should confirm date and time back with us. You should avoid postponing an invitation.
- Please do not consider the interview as a questioning. The first reason for an interview is to see if you and we want to work together and if you and we will feel comfortable working together.
- Please prepare yourself carefully for the interview.
- You should use the opportunity to address all open questions you have. The more you know about us the better you can decide if you fit to us in case we offer you a job.
- Answer questions precise, informative and directly.
- Your given information should be honest and obliging.

Best regards
Brueckner China / Human Resources
